[1] The amounts in the "Estimates Considered by Senate" column will differ to some extent from the budget estimates shown in Tables VIII, VIIIa and VIIIb because of (1) estimates which were submitted after the Senate Committee reported the bill but considered by the committee of conference, and (2) estimates considered by the Senate Committee but deferred by the committee of conference for later consideration.

[2] H.R. 4169, the Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriation Bill for 1982, was passed by the House of Representatives on Sept. 9, 1981, and was subsequently considered in the Senate but was not voted on by that body. Funding for programs and activities normally included in this bill is provided under sec. 101(h) of P.L. 97-92, Further Continuing Appropriations for fiscal year 1982 (see "note" on p. 117, and pp. 363-366, this volume).

[3] H.R. 4560, the Departments of Labor, Health, and Human Services, and Education and Related Agencies Appropriation Bill for 1982, was passed by the House of Representatives on Oct. 6, 1981 and reported by the Senate Committee on Appropriations on Nov. 9, 1981; but was not considered by the full Senate. Funding for programs and activities normally included in this bill is provided under sec. 101(a)(1) of P.L. 97-92, Further Continuing Appropriations for fiscal year 1982 (see "note" on p. 239, and p. 357, this volume).

[4] H.R. 4120, the Legislative Branch Appropriation Bill for 1982, was reported by the House of Representatives on July 9, 1981; however no further action was taken on the bill. A companion bill (S. 2939) was reported by the Senate Committee on Appropriations but was not considered by the full Senate. Funding for programs and activities normally included in this bill is provided under sec. 101(c) of P.L. 97-51, Continuing Appropriations for fiscal year 1982 (see "note" on p. 273, and pp. 344-346, this volume).

[5] H.R. 4121, the Treasury, Postal Service, and General Government Appropriations Bill for 1982, was passed by the House of Representatives on July 30, 1981, and was subsequently considered in the Senate but was not voted on by that body. Funding for programs and activities normally included in this bill is provided under sec. 101(a)(1) of P.L. 97-92, Further Continuing Appropriations for fiscal year 1982 (see "note" on p. 321, and p. 357, this volume).

[6] Excludes $256,966,000 under chapter VI for "Housing Payments", Department of Housing and Urban Development, reclassified as new budget (obligational) authority.

[7] Vetoed by the President on Nov. 23, 1981. See H.J. Res. 368.

[8] See pp. 377-396 and pp. 397-410 for status reports on rescissions and deferrals.

[9] Excludes $6,379,418,000 appropriated in fiscal year 1982 to liquidate "indefinite" budget authority provided in fiscal year 1981 for certain programs in the Department of Health and Human Services (estimated at $6,914,793,000 in 1980-1981 volume). Includes authority to obligate $4,615,600,000 in "indefinite" budget authority during fiscal year 1982 which will be adjusted and liquidated in fiscal year 1983 when final amounts become known (see table VIII on pp. 1390-1391, this volume, for accounts involved).

NOTE.—The President's Budget for 1982, as submitted January 15, 1981 (H. Doc. 97-1), tentatively estimated total new budget (obligational) authority for fiscal year 1982 at $809.8 billion in net ($918.8 billion gross, including $109 billion in intragovermental transactions and certain so-called proprietary receipts handled as offsets for budget purposes only). An estimated $427.4 billion does not require action by Congress. This amount includes permanent appropriations such as interest on the public debt and various trust funds for which the obligational authority is already provided in the basic law. Virtually all of the remaining $491.4 billion is for consideration at this session of Congress in the appropriation bills. Approximately $11.4 billion of the $491.4 billion, was shown in the January budget as being "for later transmittal" for supplemental requirements under present law, new legislation, allowances, and for contingencies and civilian pay raises.

[1] Funding for programs and activities normally included in this bill is provided through further continuing appropriations, Public Law 97-92 (Sec. 101(b)). (See p. 364, this volume.)

[2] Reflects rescission of $1,037,000,000.

[3] Reflects actual amounts rescinded rather than comparison with requests.

[4] Funding for programs and activities normally included in this bill, including advance appropriations of $105,600,000 for the Corporation for Public Broadcasting and $1,787,341,000 for the Social Security Administration, is provided through Public Law 97-92 (Sec. 101(a)(1)). (See p. 357, this volume.) This total excludes $6,579,418,000,000 included in this bill to liquidate various indefinite appropriations provided in the fiscal year 1981 bill; also excludes amounts provided as indefinite appropriations for fiscal year 1982 to be liquidated if necessary in fiscal year 1983.

[5] Funding for programs and activities normally included in this bill is provided through Public Law 97-51 (Sec. 101(c)). (See pp. 343-353, this volume.)

[6] Funding for programs and activities normally included in this bill is provided through Public Law 97-92 (Sec. 101(a)(1)). (See p. 357, this volume.)

[7] Includes amounts considered and funded through continuing appropriations for programs and activities normally funded in four regular annual appropriation bills. These bills are (1) the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education and Related Agencies Appropriation Bill, 1982, H.R. 4560 ($84,639,526,000); (2) the Legislative Branch Appropriation Bill, 1982, H.R. 4120 ($1,319,309,108); (3) the Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, the Judiciary and Related Agencies Appropriation Bill, 1982, H.R. 4169 ($8,517,704,000); and (4) the Treasury, Postal Service, and General Government Appropriations Bill, 1982, H.R. 4121 ($9,297,674,000).

[9] Reflects rescissions of $14,258,878,647 for fiscal year 1981 and $35,000,000 for fiscal year 1983.

[9] Amounts for these bills are included in the totals for "regular annual appropriations acts".

[10] Section 401 of the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-344) requires that all borrowing and contract authority (so called "backdoor authority") enacted after March 3, 1975, be subject to subsequent appropriation action. As a result, there were no legislative acts approved during the 97th Congress, 1st Session, carrying appropriations.

[11] There was no new budget (obligational) authority in any of the twelve private relief acts approved during the 97th Congress, 1st Session.

[12] Basically, amounts shown are taken from the January 1981 budget document (H. Doc. 97-1) and are subject to revision as better data become available.

[13] Budget estimates exclude $6,466,410,000 for fiscal year 1982 to liquidate "indefinite" budget authority requested in fiscal year 1981 for certain programs in the Department of Health and Human Services (estimate of $6,914,793,000 carried in 1980-1981 volume), but include $4,916,000,000 in "indefinite" budget authority for fiscal year 1982 which will be adjusted in fiscal year 1983 (1982-1983 volume) when final amounts become known (see pp. 1390-1391, this volume, for accounts involved).

[14] Excludes $6,379,418,000 appropriated in fiscal year 1982 to liquidate "indefinite" budget authority provided in fiscal year 1981 for certain programs in the Department of Health and Human Services (estimated at $6,914,793,000 in 1980-1981 volume). Includes authority to obligate $4,615,600,000 in "indefinite" budget authority during fiscal year 1982 which will be adjusted and liquidated in fiscal year 1983 when final amounts become known (see table VIII on pp. 1390-1391, this volume, for accounts involved).

[7] The regular annual appropriation bill for the Legislative Branch for fiscal year 1982 (H.R. 4120) was not enacted into law. Funding for programs and activities normally included in that bill is provided through continuing appropriations, Public Law 97-51 (Sec. 101(c)) (see pp. 343-353 this volume).

[8] There was no "new budget (obligational) authority" provided in the twelve (12) private appropriation acts approved during the 97th Congress, 1st session.

[9] Budget estimates exclude $6,466,410,000 for fiscal year 1982 to liquidate "indefinite" budget authority requested in fiscal year 1981 for certain programs in the Department of Health and Human Services (estimate of $6,914,793,000 carried in 1980-1981 volume), but include $4,916,000,000 in "indefinite" budget authority for fiscal year 1982 which will be adjusted in fiscal year 1983 (1982-1983 volume) when final amounts become known (see pp. 1390-1391, this volume, for accounts involved).

[10]Excludes $6,379,418,000 appropriated in fiscal year 1982 to liquidate "indefinite" budget authority provided in fiscal year 1981 for certain programs in the Department of Health and Human Services (estimated at $6,914,793,000 in 1980–1981 volume). Includes authority to obligate $4,615,600,000 in "indefinite" budget authority during fiscal year 1982 which will be adjusted and liquidated in fiscal year 1983 when final amounts become known (see table VIII on pp. 1390–1391, this volume, for accounts involved).

[11]Sec. 401 of the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-344) requires that all borrowing and contract authority (so-called "Backdoor authority") enacted after March 3, 1975, be subject to subsequent appropriation action. As a result, there were no legislative acts approved during the 97th Congress, 1st Session, carrying appropriations.
